

Part III

Dialogue

- Mrs. David : Sang Min, Dinner's ready!
- Sang Min : Hmm...The kitchen smells good.
Do you need help?
- Mrs. David : Could you help me set the table?
- Sang Min : Sure, I will be glad to.
Is Mr. David coming home for dinner?
- Mrs. David : He will be late. Just prepare for the three persons- you , me and Jimmy.
- Sang Min : Okay, got it.

Part IV Sentence Patterns

1. Dinner's ready! = Dinner is ready!
2. Do you need help?
3. Could you help me set the table?
4. I will be glad to.
5. Is Mr. David coming home for dinner?
6. He will be late.
7. Okay, got it.

Part V

Practice the dialog with your teacher.

Situation:

1. Offer to help set the table.

1. What does 'meal time' mean?

A. Meal time refers to the time meals will be served or are ready for you to eat.

More on this website:

<http://www.homestaynetwork.org/public/student-faqs>

References:

http://www.eslguelph.ca/Documents/2011_Homestay_Handbook.pdf

http://www.mkm-haifa.co.il/schools/habonim/lemida/food_sviava/table_manners_and_eating_habits.htm

<http://www.michellehenry.fr/mannersmat.jpg>

Part I Practice Conversations

A.

Mrs. Jones : Would you like more soup, Hana?

Hana : yes, please, Thank you Mrs. Jones.

B.

Hana : Could you please pass the bread basket, Mr. Jones?

Mr. Jones : Sure, here you go.

Hana : Thank you